

- Litigation & Arbitration
- Shipping & Maritime
- Commodities & Int. Trade
- Road, Rail & Air Transport
- Insurance & Reinsurance
- Banking & Finance
- Civil Fraud
- Employment
- Company & Insolvency
- Competition

www.stonechambers.com
T +44 (0)20 7440 6900

Sarah Miller

Call: 1971

sarah.miller@stonechambers.com

Particular Areas of Expertise

Sarah Miller specialises in marine insurance, international sale of goods, carriage of goods by sea, salvage, collisions at sea. Sarah Miller is also experienced in arbitration, including sitting as an arbitrator as a Member of Lloyds Panel of Arbitrator under Lloyd's Arbitration Scheme Tier 1 and appointments for LMAA arbitrations. A special expertise in the field of electronic commerce, particularly in relation to the carriage of goods by sea.

Significant Cases

The 'Choko Star' [1990] 1 Lloyd's Rep 516 - salvage - agency of necessity of casualty's master

The 'Volvox Hollandia' [1988] 2 Lloyd's Rep 361 - jurisdiction - forum non conveniens - claim for damage to pipeline in North Sea by Dutch dredger with English subcontractors

The 'Span Terza' [1984] 1 Lloyd's Rep 119 - ownership of bunkers on time chartered vessel

The 'Bamburi' [1982] 1 Lloyd's Rep 312 - war risks insurance of vessel trapped during Iran/Iraq war

1997-1999 Drafting the legal framework for Bolero International

2005- 2007 Drafting the legal framework for E-Title Authority Pte Ltd

Education

MSc Business Administration University of London